DAVIS THEATRE.

New Show Today-Three Big Keith Acts and Triangle Photplays.

Acts and Triangle Photplays.

There will be a complete change of programme at the Davis today, and one of the finest shows of the season will be the attraction for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Heading the bill is the Three Lorettas in a comedy musical skit that is a decided novelty and introduces Charlie Chaplin's double. The impersonations of the famous comedian are so real that it is impossible to convince oneself that it is not the famous Charlie himself that is on the stage. Another big time act is The Seebacks, a lady and gentleman, who present an athletic novelty called Fun in a Gymnaeium. Mr. Seeback has won many championships in this line and you won't want to miss seeing the act. The third act is Olga Cook, a singer that could be an operatic star if she wished, but she is content to stay in vaudeville, singing popular and classic songs that has made her the biggest favorite with New England theatregoers. The pictures are all new today also, and the feature is the five-part Griffith supervised production, Susan Rocks the Boat.

Dorothy Gish, who plays the leading the Boat.

Dorothy Gish, who plays the leading rale in this feature, has the part of a young society girl who becomes weary of the brainless set of people among whom she gravitates, and, reading the story of Joan of Arc, becomes imbued with the idea of rendering the same sort of belp to the poor people of her own city. With the immense fortune that she has; inherited she tries to clean up a bad quarter. Larry O'Neill, a gangster, somewhat refined, tries to dissuade her; and then they fall in love. Matters are complicated when Cardigan, a dive-keeper, gets the girl alone in his place and tries to press his attentions upon her. O'Neill learns of this and goes after Cardigan. Action is fast and furious, but the result brings happiness for the virtuous and punithment for the wicked.

brings happiness for the virtuous and punishment for the wicked.

To complete the show there is a two reel Keystone comedy called Bath Tub Perils, featuring the popular Keystone comedian Fred Macs. This is a lively comedy from beginning to end and has plenty of laughs to keep every one in good humor for the rest of the week Matines at 2.15 every day, all seats if cents, children 5 cents. Evening 5 6.45 and 8.45: 10, 15 and 20 cents.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The Five Reel Production Virtua Making a Big Hit-Pathe News Vor. Popular This Week.

The management of the Auditoriun presented yesterday a very good bill of high class photopians which will be repeated again today. May Ward in Virtue, a five reel feature, headed the bill and caused much favorable comment. The two reel Pathe entities. Dolls of Intrigue was worthy of mention, and the weekly news film contained many interesting subjects, including parts of the big Preparedness parage in New York city a few weekly parage in New York city a few weekly parade in New York city a few week-ago with 150,000 people in line. For Friday and Saturday of the week an unusually good bill has bee-booked. It will be headed by the inbooked. It will be headed by the fiveled Paramount feature Nearly a King a hilarious comedy of thrilling adventure and humorous romance, with the hopular comedian, John Barrymore, in the leading role. On the bill also will be the third episode of The Mysteries of Myra, in two reels, and the fourth of the Napollan the Great and Sally His Mate comedy animal photoplays.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

COLONIAL THEATRE UNDER

George W. Carroll to Open Up-to-Date

Picture House.

The Colonial theatre, part of the bankrupt estate of Charles McNulty, has been purchased by George W. Carroll, who will close the playhouse July 1st, and have it redecorated and put in first class order. The theatre will be reopened about the first of August August.

Oh, the little auto bonnet,
With the fluffs and frills upon it.
And the chiffon how that's fied beneath the thin!
How caressingly it presses
On the curly, truant tresses.
That refuse to keep their naughty selves within!

Ah, the little auto bonnet,
It's a lyric, it's a sonnet,
It's a triolet, a madrigal, a song!
For in such exalted phrases
I am bound to sing its praises
Till her aviation bonnet comes along,
—Arthur Guiterman.
